Holi is an Indian festival of colours celebrated to announce the arrival of spring and the passing of winter.

According to Indian mythology it is a festival of victory of good over evil. It is also a festival of letting go of what has already passed and awaken the hopes and strengthen our ties with our friends and loved ones.

Holi is also a festival of pranks; people spend the day throwing colours at each other and have fun with friends and family.

Every household has their own special dishes for this day and everyone serves homemade Thandai –a spiced cooler laced with saffron.

Here we present a few of our Holi favourites.

Prices include VAT at prevailing rate. We do not levy service charge for tables of up to 8 people.
